V. COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE
   A. Building and Zoning September Report – IT Director Helms
      ✓ Permit was issued for new roof on YM.C.A.
      ✓ Footings were poured at the construction site for the new Fareway store.
      ✓ Clean-up week will begin next Monday, October 9th. Information was put on social media as well as flyers being posted.

   B. Woodard and Curran August Report – Director Jackson
      ➢ The department closed off the downtown area for two major events – the Car Show and Baconfest.
      ➢ Well #9 is back on-line.
      ➢ Laverdiere Construction is beginning the removal of the tracks on North Main Street today. Depending on the weather it should take about a week to complete the project.
Other than the two major events that the department assisted with, it was a fairly routine month.

C. Approval of Bid for Strom Center Roof

City Administrator Steinbrecher explained that the Administration had pursued outside funding along with using some funds from the downtown TIF Fund to cover the cost of re-roofing the Strom Center roof. The City was not able to secure any grants to help with the re-roofing. Two bids were solicited from two local qualified contractors and the Administration is recommending accepting the Riddell Roofing bid of $42,540.00. It was moved by Alderman Wells and seconded by Alderman Pinedo to accept the bid of $42,540.00 from Riddell Roofing to re-roof the Strom Center Building owned by the City. AYE: Aldermen Daw, Wells, Pinedo, Heatherly, Clark, Thomas and Rutledge NAY: none ABSENT: Alderwoman Twomey MOTION CARRIED.

D. Italian Village Request for Liquor License

States Attorney Andy Doyle and co-owner of the Italian Village appeared before the Council to make the request for a Class III Liquor License for the Italian Village as his partner, Doug Tatman was unable to be present to make the request. Mr. Doyle stated if the Italian Village was granted a license he would sell his half of the business since a public official is not allowed to hold a liquor license in the State of Illinois. In response to Alderman Heatherly’s question as to whether the Italian Village would apply for video gaming machines, Mr. Doyle stated that was the business’s intention if granted a liquor license, but he added that it would not change the business model for the I.V. It was moved by Alderman Daw and seconded by Alderman Wells to approve authorizing the City Attorney to draft an ordinance increasing the number of Class III liquor licenses from four (4) to five (5) and place it on the Agenda for the October 15th meeting for a vote. AYE: Aldermen Daw, Wells, Pinedo, Clark, Thomas and Rutledge NAY: Alderman Heatherly ABSENT: Alderwoman Twomey MOTION CARRIED.
